S. Richardson, Z. Saribal and B. Weeks (Chairman)
Mrs. A. Pickering – Clerk

3158 Apologies for Absence - Cllr. R. Weeks.

3159 To approve the provision and siting of a seat on South Ella Way, to be donated by former Councillor, Elizabeth Robinson - Mrs Robinson had contacted the Parish Clerk to ask for Parish Council approval to site a Stanford seat with plaque to commemorate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, on the grassed area opposite Egginton Close, Kirk Ella, seat and plaque to be donated by Mrs Robinson. It was proposed by Cllr. B. Weeks that the £500 grant received for the Queen's Platinum Jubilee be used to pay for the concrete base, with any remaining funds to be spent on plants to go around the base of the seat. The proposal was seconded by Cllr. G. McMaster. All members were unanimously in favour. The wording for the plaque was circulated for information.

Cllr. G. McMaster had received written permission from the Regional Managing Director of LOVELL to place the seat on their land.

The possibility of installing an information board near the seat will be considered at a future date.
